

VACATIONING AT NORTHBAY AT LAKE ARROWHEAD

NorthBay at Lake Arrowhead is situated a short distance away from the village and mountain activities yet far enough away to enjoy some well-deserved peace and quiet. Surrounded by a forest of towering pines, colourful oaks, and aromatic cedars, the warm and comfortable furnishings at this resort offer guests the feel of being at home.

Lake Arrowhead has been celebrated for its culture, rich history and beautiful southern California mountain scenery. Today there is plenty to do in the area – unique shopping, diverse dining and exceptional entertainment. Nearby recreational activities include hiking, horseback riding, skiing and snowboarding and mountain biking.

DIRECTIONS

Nearest Airport: Ontario Airport

From the airport take 10 Hwy East and merge onto the 210 Hwy. Follow the signs to Mountain Resorts. Take the exit for Waterman Ave and turn left onto Waterman Ave (Waterman Ave turns into Hwy. 18 after crossing over 40th St). Follow Hwy 18 up the mountain about 22 miles. After passing through the small community of Rim Forest look for Daley Canyon. Turn left on Daley Canyon (which turns into Hwy 189). Go through the first stop sign. Proceed to second stop sign and make a left on North Bay Rd. Continue on North Bay Rd for approx. 2 miles and then make a left on Sugarpine (Sign will say "Arrowhead Lake Estates"). The resort is gated; therefore, stop at key pad and type 050 and you will be buzzed in.
