

VACATIONING AT PALM SPRINGS TENNIS CLUB

Nestled at the base of the San Jacinto Mountains, Palm Springs offers vacationers the perfect blend of warm weather, stunning natural scenery, and year round events and activities. With its laid back and welcoming atmosphere, this is a wonderful community for browsing in boutiques, enjoying a bite at an eatery or coffee house, or just people watching in the sun. The many theatres, museums, galleries, and art festivals are great ways to learn about the local history and experience first hand the surviving traditions and culture. The architecture of past and present can be explored on a leisurely stroll in one of the charming neighbourhoods, or by embarking on an organized house tour.

Everywhere you turn at The Palm Springs Tennis Club you will encounter a spectacular desert or mountain view. Guests staying at this resort can practice their tennis, relax by one of three swimming pools and spas, play board games while having a BBQ lunch, or enjoy a round of golf at one of the many nearby championship courses.
